Good morning Mr. Ballister,

Per my email to Ms. Lockhart on May 17, 2016 (copy attached), Defendants' Initial Disclosures were served on your office via US Mail on May 5, 2016, and a courtesy copy was emailed to Ms. Lockhart on May 17. We again attach a courtesy copy of Defendants' Initial Disclosures for your file.

Also attached is a copy of the CASp report.

We would request that you forward a copy of the inspection report results, via email, to Mr. Trachtman's attention at your earliest convenience. Thank you for your help in this regard.

Mr. Trachtman,

The above site inspection was completed on 5/25/16, as agreed, per the court's 5/10/16 minute order. The parties are further ordered to file a joint status report on or before May 31, 2016.

We have not received your clients' Initial Disclosures, perhaps a mere oversight on your end. Per the Rule 26 Joint Report, Initial Disclosures were due for email service on 5/4/16. Please provide your clients' Initial Disclosures at this time. Also, please provide a copy of the 4/29/16 CASp report mentioned in your portion of the Rule 26 Joint Report.

I will prepare a draft Joint Status Report and submit same to you by start of business Tuesday, 5/31/16, for your input. In the meantime, if you have anything you would like included in the Joint Status Report, please send it to me at your earliest convenience, in Word form.

Thank you.
